

PCC Report

The PCC and Standing Committee have met 6 times since the last APCM, all on Zoom.

The following are some of the items discussed during this time:

- The pandemic, continuing and re-introducing services as restrictions lift and how to include both the younger and older church members during these difficult times.
- Using the Church as a venue and for the community.
- A youth minister and Nexus plans for the future.
- The ongoing financial deficit.
- Church of England "Living in Love and Faith".
- Wilding some of the church yard.
- Children and youth plan.
- Transforming church workshops.

Philipp Funck continues to grow in his development as a youth worker and encourage the younger congregation in their faith as part of his youth work. Philipp has implemented a weekly Sunday evening youth worship service and works hard with the young people at youth club on a Tuesday evening.

Craft sessions have continued twice a month online with the craft and film days being held online during school holidays.

The baptism process has been updated and it was lovely to see so many baptism families at a Sunday service earlier this month.

An Alpha course has been held online and culminated with a meal in the church room.

Sunday School was being held online and has just moved back in to church and the children and young people are happy to be back together.

Tuesday prayers, Friday blessings and Midweek Church have all returned to church.

Sunday services continue to be well attended in church and online.

A toddler group and The 3 family services have been introduced this year and are well attended.
