For Prayer

Let us pray for our everyday weekday lives as we live for Christ:

... some of us work in health-care, as physios, nurses, carers etc;

... some volunteer in charity shops

... some run businesses or manage other people;

... some have secretarial or administrative posts;

... many "retired" nonetheless carry large responsibilities for charities & local groups.

We hold Alan Warren's family and friends in our prayers as they prepare for Alan's funeral on 12th February, 12pm, at St Michael's Church

May God bless our town, and those who live in Bute Close and Bydemill Gardens

Prayer Chain

To commit to join the prayer chain or if you have something for which you would like specific or urgent prayer, please email smprayerchain@yahoo.com All requests are confidential.

Curates Corner

Candlemas

This week has seen free climber Alex Honnold, climb one of the world's tallest buildings (Tapei 101).
You could watch it live on Netflix!

The world's tallest structures and mountains are incomparable to God's love for us. One of the choices for today's readings is Psalm 36.5-10, which begins with these words:

‘Your love, O Lord, reaches to the heavens and your faithfulness to the clouds.’

Today also marks the season of Candlemas, where we celebrate the presentation of the young child Jesus in the Temple, in fulfilment of the Old Testament laws (Luke 2. 22-40).

This great love which God has for each of us is presented and revealed in a person - Jesus Christ. God so loved us that he sends Jesus to be the sacrifice for our sins (John 3.16).

Today, we can join with Simeon and Anna, offering our words of praise to the One who gave himself for us and share this great love with others.

‘For with you is the well of life and in your light shall we see light’. Psalm 36.9

Have a lovely week.
